I'll Hold You Down 2 - Dejah Rice 2017-11-27

In this second installment of I'll Hold You Down, things heat up just a tad bit. What is one to do when their own cousin has them at gunpoint and seems to want them dead? Natalie Clover seems to be going through it time after time, and things still don't seem to be looking better for her. Will her ex, that she once loved, be able to save her and possibly win her back? Or will he be just another problem for her? Neil has done something that he has never done before, and that's put his heart on the line for a woman. All he wants is someone that will really ride for him and hold him down in the streets, and he wants it with Natalie. The only thing is, he doesn't know if she will be able to handle his street life, or if she is just going to shoot him down. Aside from things with Natalie, Neil has even bigger problems after finding out that his sister has been knocked up by the same guy that wants to see him behind bars. Will Natalie be able to find her way out of trouble? Will Neil be able to handle business without hurting the only family member he has left? Will this duo be able to come out on top and give love with each other a chance? Or are things just too complicated for love when it comes to these two?

The Excalibur of Christ - Eyam Idew 2011

The Excalibur of Christ is more than a book, more than a diary. It's a guide, a weapon and truth; I say this because everyone knows the story of Excalibur, but what everyone might not know is the truth of a sword. A sword is far more than a piece of metal, in the Bible and other doctrines of the world, a sword is the tongue and mind of man. However, the true mind of man is the incorruptible spirit of him, which was birth by the Most High, the true image we're in, but if you do not have that sword, you will not know although you may be forever hearing. So, now that you know the truth of the sword, this book is written with the Excalibur of Christ, because we not only war with flesh and blood. But we war with principalities of things that are unjustly done which causes the war on flesh and blood. Therefore, to fight that battle you have to be equipped with the right information and weaponry. Thus, you are given the truth of your sword, and if you think I'm not being truthful, look at it for yourself. Take the (s) off sword and all you'll have left if word, which is your thoughts and speech. So, with that being said, take up thy armor and fight a good fight that you may enjoy all that's rightfully yours in this life.

Child Trauma And HIV Risk Behaviour In Women - Laura E. Whitmire 2013-11-12

Utilizing longitudinal research, the authors have identified the mediational nature of the process of how traumatic events in childhood lead to increased HIV risk as adults. The book approaches the outcomes of childhood maltreatment systematically; demonstrates for the first time the need to examine the mediators of abuse, the indirect paths from childhood experiences to adult behaviors; offers useful measures of HIV risk based on risky behaviors; presents a feminist analysis of cultural norms that support HIV risk in women. The research presented clarifies present conceptualizations of interpersonal power, and gender's impact on the process and negotiation of, and desire to engage in, safer sexual practices. Knowing the importance of mediators will enable counselors and therapists to intervene on these variables at an early stage, thereby helping to reduce the incidence of subsequent risky behavior.

A New and Complete Concordance Or Verbal Index to Words, Phrases, & Passages in the Dramatic Works of Shakespeare - John Bartlett 1896

Out of the Depths - Barry Ivker 2014-03

The Holocaust has presented us with innumerable questions that we wrestle with today. How could such systematic evil be perpetuated in a country renowned for its sophistication in all areas of the sciences and the arts? How could the world turn a blind eye to what was happening and close its doors to potential victims? How could ordinary people participate in this horror? How could others act to save Jews at the risk of their own lives and the lives of their families? How could those facing imminent destruction continue to study agricultural techniques useful to the future state of Israel or teach their children how to paint? It is my hope that these plays will serve to focus on some of these questions, even as we witness new genocidal wars around the world. There is an imperative here as old as the Biblical account of Genesis. It is for us to affirm the goodness of the world as it is - the potential goodness of human nature- - and the need to create (and procreate) even in the force of destruction and death.

Overcome - Clayton King 2017-05-02

At the base of every broken life, every dysfunctional relationship, every bad choice is a lie we believe. And at the root of every lie is fear. Fear of not having enough, fear of missing out, fear of being alone. The good news is, once we can identify and name our fears, we can defeat the lies that control us and live out the more abundant life that Christ promises us. With sharp insight and deep compassion, Clayton King identifies the ten big lies we commonly believe, each rooted in the fear of losing something. He blows them apart, one by one, with God's truth, allowing readers to take back control of their hearts, minds, and actions. Covering such pervasive problems as loneliness, unforgiveness, shame, human suffering, self-image, sexual sin, and more, King shines a light on all those things that are holding us down and clears the way for the faith that sets us free.
